

Positive Parenting

Anyone raising a child (birth-13) can attend this program to learn strategies for keeping children safe and preparing children for success. This program will be especially beneficial for parents under high stress.

Mondays, November 10-December 15, 2008

Time: 5:30-7:00

Location: Dorothy Bardolph Human Services Building, 301 E. Washington Street, 2nd floor library, Greensboro, NC

Cost: $30/person or $40/couple for the entire series. Can be paid over time but full payment is expected by the last class. ($20 returned check fee)

Documentation will be provided for those completing at least 5 of the 6 classes in the series and completing payment.

November 10: Positive Parenting
November 17: Child development and safety
November 24: Discipline
December 1: Anger Management
December 8: Issues that impact parenting
December 15: Problem Solving

To register: Call the Family Life Council at 336-333-6890 ext. 221, or bring or mail the form to the address below

Payment: Cash or check/money order made payable to Family Life Council

Location: Dorothy Bardolph Human Services Building, 301 E. Washington Street, Suite 204, Greensboro, NC, 27401

Questions: Call Sebrina Cooke-Davis at 336-333-6890 ext. 229

The Family Life Council is Guilford County's only agency specifically focused on providing family life and parent education. For more information about our programs visit us at www.flcgo.com.

familylife
council

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____ Email address _____

Payment: _____

Family Life Council
301 E. Washington Street, Suite 204
Greensboro, NC 27401